

Municipal Selectboard
Notice of Public Hearing
Guildhall, Vermont

NOTICE

This is to inform you that the Guildhall Selectboard will be holding a public hearing to review the proposed Town Plan for the Town of Guildhall. The public hearing will be on Thursday, July 25, 2024 at 6:00pm at the Guildhall Town Office Building, 13 Courthouse Drive, Guildhall, Vermont.

Statement of Purpose: The Guildhall Town Plan is a framework and guide for reaching community goals. It attempts to balance the wide range of competing interests and demands found in the town, to coordinate the pattern of development, the use of important natural resources and to address both current and long-term needs. The policies stated within this comprehensive plan were developed to preserve and protect the town's assets while providing a future vision for town officials, businesses and citizens of Guildhall.

The geographic areas affected: The Guildhall Town Plan affects the areas within the Town of Guildhall. The Town Plan contains policies and actions that could affect adjacent towns of Maidstone, Granby, and Lunenburg in relation to forest blocks, habitat connectors, transportation networks, recreation, and flood resilience.
